

GENDER/FEMINIST CRITICISM

1. How are men and women portrayed in the work?
2. Do the men and women accept or reject these roles?
3. Is gender a source of conflict in the work?
4. What attitudes are explicit and/or implicit concerning gender and relationships?
5. Does the work challenge or affirm traditional ideas about men and women?