Three generations of men in my family have gone to law school. I hope to follow in their footsteps by getting a juris doctor degree. Rather than using my degree in the court house, I plan to pursue a career with the Federal Bureau of Investigation. Their motto is Fidelity, Bravery, and Integrity. Former FBI agent Robert Muller said, “More than just a motto, for the men and women of the FBI, Fidelity, Bravery, and Integrity is a way of life.” My goal is to enter the field as a special agent T-1 and eventually climb to a T-4 agent.

Today's society is in need of individuals willing to serve and care for the needs of others. As someone who enjoys socially interacting with the community, along with a deep passion for helping others achieve goals, my eyes have opened to the career of physical therapy. It is a profession that provides healing, guidance, and hope to people, especially those with disabilities or injuries. Through a career in physical therapy, I plan to become a vital member of my community and create a positive, confident work environment.

In the 1940s, the average home costed about $2.5 per square foot. Now, the median price of a home is $120 per square foot (Martin). As a business-minded person, it does not take a genius to figure out that there is money to be made in a career whose annual income has multiplied by 48 over the last seventy years. This influx of income is due to Real Estate Developers. Real Estate Development is the process of buying, selling, and renovating used properties and building new properties. Developers design shopping centers, neighborhoods, schools, and are responsible for nearly every building in a town. This career interests me because I want to see my ideas come to life and positively impact communities. And with such a increased in revenue, who wouldn't want to take part?
