

FUTURE WORLD PROJECTS

- In Ray Bradbury's Fahrenheit 451, we read about one possible scenario for the future. What is your vision of the future?
- We just passed the 60th anniversary of the book's publishing date. What will our world will be like 60 years from now?
- Describe your world. Choose 2 topics and write 1-2 paragraphs.

FUTURE WORLD PROJECTS

TOPICS (Choose 2)

- Government - What kind(s) of government(s) will there be?
- Education - How will people learn?
- Homes - What will people's homes look like inside and out?
- Work - What kinds of jobs will there be for people to do, if any?
- Economy - How will goods and services be available? Monetary system?
- Leisure - What leisure time activities will people have?
- Family - Will society be family-oriented or otherwise structured?
- Food - What will people eat, and how will it be provided & prepared?
- Clothing - What will people wear?
- Climate - What will the climate be?
- Ecology/Environment - How will our planet look?
- Other life forms - What other kinds of plants and animals will be sharing our planet?
- Peace or War - Will the people on Earth be getting along or fighting with each other?
- Health - Will people be healthy? What diseases will exist, if any? What progress will medical science make?