

SOAPSTONE PACKET

NON-FICTION SUMMER READING BOOK

SPEAKER (Author's Full Name)
OCCASION (What situation, circumstance, event, or issue caused the author to write the book?) Length: 1 paragraph
AUDIENCE (Who are the intended audiences of the book?)	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. 2. 3. 4.
PURPOSE (Why did the author write the book? What message is he trying to get across? Think more deeply and analytically.) Length: 1 paragraph
SUBJECT (What is the general topic of the book?)
TONE (Identify 2-3 tone words to describe the book overall.)

1. How does the author appeal to ethos? (credibility, authority of the speaker) Provide an example.

2. How does the author appeal to pathos? (emotions, passion) Provide an example.

3. How does the author appeal to logos? (logic, facts, statistics, charts, information) Provide an example.

4. How many stars do you give the book?

5. What did you like the most?

6. What did you like the least?

7. What is one interesting thing you learned from the book?

8. What is a powerful passage/quote from the book? Write it out.