

THE STRANGE CASE OF DR. JEKYLL & MR. HYDE

CHAPTER II: SEARCH FOR MR. HYDE

Mr. Utterson, a lawyer, is the executor of Dr. Jekyll's will. Explain in your own words the details of Dr. Jekyll's will (6):

1. What should happen to Mr. Jekyll's money and property if he dies?
2. What should happen to his money and property if he disappears for more than three months?
3. How does Mr. Utterson feel about the odd and unusual provisions in Dr. Jekyll's will? (6-7)
4. Mr. Utterson, curious about the mysterious Mr. Edward Hyde decides to visit Dr. Lanyon. The three men (Utterson, Lanyon, and Jekyll) are long-time close friends. When Utterson asks Lanyon if he knows anything about Mr. Hyde, what is Lanyon's response? (8)
5. After leaving Dr. Lanyon's home, Mr. Utterson decides to investigate Mr. Hyde on his own. Where does he go and what does he do to find out more about Hyde? (8)
6. Complete Mr. Utterson's famous line from the book:

"If he be Mr. Hyde," he had thought, "I shall be _____."

7. List 10 things directly from the book to describe Mr. Hyde.

-
-
-
-
-
-
-
-
-
-

8. Utterson has a conversation with Poole, the butler of Dr. Jekyll, to get information about Mr. Hyde. Complete Poole's quote from the book:

"We have all orders to _____."

9. Who is Poole referring to in question #6?

10. How is Hyde able to get in and out of Dr. Jekyll's house so easily?