

JEKYLL & HYDE MULTIGENRE PORTFOLIO

ENGLISH IV

WHAT IS MULTIGENRE WRITING?

Multigenre writing is a series of documents that are linked by a central premise, and offer multiple perspectives and interpretations of a text. You will tap into your knowledge of the text and your imagination to produce a project that demonstrates a sophisticated understanding of audience, various genres, and uses of language.

This is not a random collection of writing; rather, it is a well-planned work that guides the reader through a cohesive project. There should be a common thread throughout your genres.

DIRECTIONS

Choose 3 genres from the following list. Each genre is worth 30 points. You will present your project to the class on the due date.

EXAMPLES OF GENRES

1. Poetry (16 lines min.)
2. Journal/Diary Entry
3. Personal Letter from a Character
4. Newspaper Article
5. Obituary or Eulogy
6. Short Story (Flash Fiction)
7. Inner Monologue/Soliloquy
